Allowed Claims: 1-22.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103.

Specifically, with respect to independent claim 1, none of the prior art alone or in combination disclose or teach of a zoom lens comprising, in a direction of light propagation: a positive front, a negative variator, a positive compensator and a positive base lens groups as claimed, specifically further comprising a beam deflector arranged between first and second base lens groups of said base lens group wherein said second base lens group is arranged along a second optical axis inclined with respect to the optical axis of the other lens groups at an angle different from 0° and 180° .

Specifically, with respect to independent claim 18, none of the prior art alone or in combination disclose or teach of a military reconnaissance system comprising a zoom lens comprising, in a direction of light propagation: a positive front, a negative variator, a positive compensator and a positive base lens groups as claimed, specifically further comprising a beam deflector arranged between first and second base lens groups of said base lens group wherein said second base lens group is arranged along a second optical axis inclined with respect to the optical axis of the other lens groups at an angle different from 0° and 180° .

CITATION OF RELEVANT PRIOR ART

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Ozaki et al (U.S. 6,333,823 B1) is being cited herein to show a zoom lens comprising some of the structural limitations of that of the claimed invention, but does not specifically disclose a beam deflector arranged between the first and second base lens groups.
